

ABOUT MALAWI

The Republic of Malawi is a landlocked country in southeast Africa that was formerly known as Nyasaland. It is bordered by Zambia to the northwest, Tanzania to the northeast, and Mozambique to the east, west and south. The country is separated from Tanzania and Mozambique by Lake Malawi.

Malawi is one of the poorest countries in the world. The countryside of Malawi consists of small villages with clay and mud huts. These villages are accessed on unpaved roads. The poor economic situation is attributed to the absence of minerals, the lack of a seaport, limited educational opportunities, and the traditional focus on plantation farming.
